In this high tech digital world, students, families and even businesses have to know how to communicate in so many different media. With email, video conferencing, YouTube, Podcasts, web pages, photos galleries, MySpace, FaceBook, digital movies, iPods, MP3 and on and on, how do we use it all as a tool and control access to it all?

Come see our Technology for the 21st. Century Student and Family seminar.

Learn how to edit a movie and post it to YouTube. Learn how to create a web based photo gallery with a couple of clicks. Learn how to create your own music as an opening to your own Podcast. Learn how to create stunning presentations using Keynote, amazing graphs and charts using Numbers and stylish documents using Pages. Kids will go home with lots of great ideas as well as a workbook packed with tips to become a better presenter and writer.
