

The Complete Web Design Course

III. OBJECTIVES: Students will get an A to Z crash course on everything that's involved with creating a website and publishing it online. Students will post "real-time" to the web and be able to view results online.

IV. OUTLINE:

Lesson 1: DREAMWEAVER

Basic HTML Tools Learn the value of GUI interface tools

Create stunning webpages

Publish and upload webpages to a live server

Gain more knowledge about HTML and XHTML

Lesson 2: TABLES

Learn a webmaster's best friend

Tables are more than just data displays

Create "Cutting-Edge" layouts using tables

Lesson 3: FRAMES & COOKIES

What are they?

When should you use frames?

What are the benefits and drawbacks of Frames and Cookies?

1760 Jonestown Rd., Suite 200 * Winston-Salem, NC 27103

(800) 467-9820 * (336) 768-9820 * Fx: (336) 760-3309

www.computertree.com

Lesson 4: CREATING WEBSITE

What's the difference between webpages and websites?

How do I get online?

Internet Service Providers

InterNIC and its role

Lesson 5: PHOTOSHOP

Creating graphics specifically for the web

Web Safe Colors

RGB vs CMYK

What is resolution and why does it matter

Webmaster's #1 concern

Lesson 6: FLASH

Animation

Onion Skinning

Tweening

Text Tricks

Publishing to webpages